Fourth Sunday of Advent

“...Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!”- (1 Luke 1:28) After Jesus we look to Mary as an ideal steward. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God’s call. Mary teaches us to live with joy for all we have been given. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we are called to reflect Christ’s light to the world through our gratitude and generosity.

The following is an Advent Examination of Conscience as found in the Advent Companion of the Magnificat by the Rev. Richard Veras:

R/.Come, Lord Jesus!

For the times when I forgot that I need a Savior, and arrogantly conceive of myself as sufficient to myself. R/.

For the times when I do not believe Jesus and instead give in to the lie of perceiving God the Father as being indifferent or hostile to my well-being. R/.

For the times when I trust my self-pitying accusations more than the Father's love. R/.

For the times when I desecrate the presence of Christ by making my own opinions, my own criteria, or my own likes and dislikes the measure for measuring the circumstances of life and other people. R/.

For the times when I have shunned the presence of Christ, whether it be His sacramental presence of His presence through the people He puts in my life. R/.

For the times I have blasphemed the presence of Christ through using other human beings as things that I can manipulate or use for my own selfish ends. R/.

For the times when I have disregarded the will of Christ through abuse of those things He has given to me for the building up of His Kingdom. R/.

For the times when I justify my sinfulness and thus treat God's mercy with disdain (and ingratitude). R/.
