Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for June

Evangelization – Priests

That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are the most poor.

Many thanks to all who took part in my celebration . I was very touched by all who attended and extremely appreciative of the gifts and cards received. I look forward to serving the community of Corpus Christi. May God Bless Our Parish – Deacon Kevin O'Brien

June 30, 2019 – Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love.” (Galatians 5:13)

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to “live the good life.” But Jesus - calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God’s work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

- Every First Friday (barring a national holiday), Low Mass at 7pm, Exposition starting at 3pm till about 6:45 pm followed by Benediction
- Every First Saturday, Low Mass, 12noon. Confessions heard from 11-11:30 am.

What does Extraordinary Form Mean (E.F.)

"Extraordinary Form" means the "Traditional Latin Mass." The two terms can be used interchangeably with slightly different connotations. When Pope Benedict started using the term, "Extraordinary Form" in his Motu Proprio (Latin for "on his own impulse") Summorum Pontificum (2007), he was trying to emphasize a particular theology that both the modern version and the ancient version of the Mass have a place within the Roman Rite. Other names for the Extraordinary Form include the Usus Antiquior, the Mass of Blessed John XXIII, the Tridentine Mass and the Mass of 1962. The Ordinary Form of the Mass can also be called the Novus Ordo, the Mass of 1970 or the Mass of Paul VI. The problem with using these terms is that they tie the Mass to a specific time period instead of seeing both as part of the living Tradition of the Church. As the Holy Father has stated in his Letter to the Bishops released with Summorum Pontificum, "There is no contradiction between the two editions of the Roman Missal." The Holy Father sees both forms as worthy of respect and dignity and wishes for both to flourish within the Roman Rite. Sometimes the Extraordinary Form is just called the "Latin Mass" which is inaccurate because even the Ordinary Form may be celebrated in Latin and both forms are equally part of the Latin Rite (which is also called the Roman Rite).

First Friday – July 5, 2019

Exposition starting 3:00 pm-6:45 pm followed by Benediction-7:00 pm Low Mass

An excellent practice recommended by all the saints, especially St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, (1647-1690)

Is devotion to Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament in which through our prayer in silent adoration we make reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus for the sins which have offended God in this world mocking our Savior and His great goodness and love. If possible, for 9 consecutive months attend Mass on First Friday, receiving Holy Communion. If in need of the Sacrament of Penance receive it as well. It has been the time-honored practice as well to make a holy hour before Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist on First Friday of the month which is observed here at the parish church from 3pm-6:45 pm, Confession at 6:00-6:30, followed by Benediction at 6:45. All parishioners are invited to offer a minimum of 7 minutes of prayer for the intention of Evangelization, please consider the Lord's merciful invitation to pray and rest in Him, "I am deeply grieved, even to death, remain here, and stay awake with me (Matt 26:38)."

St. Margaret Mary has said, "It is an abyss of lowliness to counteract our foolishness. The divine heart of Jesus is an abyss of all blessings, and into it the poor should always submerge their needs. It is an abyss of joy in which all of us can immerse our sorrows, an abyss of mercy for the wretched, an abyss of love to meet our every need."

75th Anniversary Gala– I hope you are planning to spend the evening with us on September 7th. Please feel free to fill out your Gala returns prior to August 1, 2019. Don't forget your dinner choice as well as if you are taking the bus. If you would like to reserve a table for your family or friends, kindly call the parish office.

Corpus Christi Church Hall

Movie starts at 7:00 pm

Light refreshments and coffee will be served.

Movie. "Paul, Apostle of Christ". Risking his life, Luke ventures to Rome to visit Paul – the apostle who's bound in chains and held captive in Nero's darkest and bleakest prison cell. Haunted by the shadows of his past misdeeds, Paul wonders if he's been forgotten as he awaits his grisly execution. Before Paul's death, Luke resolves to write another book that details the birth of what will come to be known as the church. Rated PG13
