The Feast of Corpus Christi

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it..." MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

What We Believe.... Why We Believe It...

The Great Promise

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was born in 1647 in France. It is Margaret Mary who was responsible for spreading devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. From a very early age, Margaret Mary wanted nothing more than to give her life to the service of God, so she entered the convent of the Visitation Sisters. This is where her love for the Blessed Sacrament became so strong she could only tear herself away from the Divine Presence with the greatest difficulty. She used to tell Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament that she wanted to be consumed with love for Him the way a candle is consumed by fire. Once while she was deep in prayer before the tabernacle, our Lord appeared to Margaret Mary. He showed Himself to her in all His glory with His five wounds shining like five brilliant suns, and His Sacred Heart like a furnace of fire. He told her how much He loves all mankind and how He is hurt by the ingratitude they show Him by forgetting Him.

Jesus appeared to Margaret Mary two more times in 1675. On the last occasion He said, "Behold this heart that has loved men so much that it has spared nothing to testify to them its love; and in return I receive from most of them only ingratitude by their irreverences and their sacrileges and by the coldness and contempt they have for Me in the Sacrament of Love." One of the devotions our Lord taught to St. Margaret Mary was the Holy Hour of Reparation. Jesus in His Agony in the Garden went over to His apostles, Peter, James and John, to seek a little consolation from them, but He found them asleep. He said to them, "What? Could you not watch one hour with me? Watch and pray that you enter not into temptation." In memory of this Jesus asked St Margaret Mary to honor His most Sacred Heart by rising every Thursday night at eleven o'clock and prostrating herself for an hour before Him in the Blessed Sacrament. During that hour she was to beg God's mercy for poor sinners and try to sweeten the bitter pain He felt when His apostles slept during His agony in the Garden of Olives.

Among the ten promises our Lord made to St. Margaret Mary is one called the great Promise: "I promise you in the excessive mercy of My Heart that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who go to Holy Communion on the first Friday in nine consecutive months, the grace of final penitence: They shall not die in my disfavor nor without receiving their sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment."

To Be Continued in next week's bulletin.
