Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Everything I have is yours." Luke 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son, we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do you really want to turn your back on all that God offers in exchange for material wealth that has no lasting value? God wants us to be happy on earth as well. But, that requires us to freely accept His gift of faith; putting Him first in all things and detaching from our own self-sufficiency.

Full of confidence in Thy power I fly unto Thee and beg Thy protection. Despise not O Guardian of the Redeemer my humble supplication, but in Thy bounty, hear and answer me. Amen.*

We Remember

On this tragic day, 21 years ago, the worst terrorist attack ever occurred on U.S. soil.

Two hijacked

commercial jet airplanes were flown into the North and South Towers of the World Trade Center, as a third commercial jet airplane was flown into the Pentagon, and a fourth crashed into a field in rural Pennsylvania. Today, let us pray for the three thousand people who died that day and for those individuals who are still grieving their losses.

Let us call to mind that we are in God's presence.

O God of love, compassion, and healing,
Bring peace to this violent world.
Peace in the hearts of all men and women,
and peace among the nations of this earth.
Strengthen us in Hope,
and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where people of all races are treated with dignity and respect.
We pray in Jesus' name, Amen.
