Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” (Luke 14:33)

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Our Lucky Calendar winner for Tuesday, Sept. 3rd was for the St. Vincent de Paul Society. A ticket was bought in their name. Our next drawing is set for Tuesday, October 1st.

Are you exploring the Catholic Faith?

Are you already a Catholic seeking to deepen your relationship with Christ and his Church?

Join us and spend quality time as we explore together the Catholicism series program, where you will watch beautiful videos and engage in thoughtful discussions.

The Catholicism series was produced by the renowned Bishop Robert Barron who journeys around the world and deep into the Faith to teach us what Catholics believe and why.

The series uses the spiritual and artistic treasures of the Faith to illuminate the key teachings of the Church.
